Scholarships

To Qualify –

To be eligible for the scholarships you must:

- Be a high school senior
- Major in an agricultural field at an accredited college or university

In addition to the two-page application, please send:

- Typed essays, listed below
- Two letters of reference
- Official high school transcript, and official GPA
- Official ACT or SAT score
- A recent photo for use in future scholarship promotions, member publications, social media and on our web site, www.nationalfarmers.com. (It will only be used if you earn a scholarship. Photos will not be returned.)

The Essays –

The essays give our judges a picture of your understanding of complex topics in agriculture. With that in mind, please be sure to answer the questions thoroughly and to the best of your ability. Feel free to interview individuals knowledgeable in the agriculture industry, specifically in ag marketing and risk management, and use agriculture publications as sources.

- 1. How can marketing production with other farmers and ranchers improve prices for grain, dairy and livestock?
- 2. Choose one strategy: Niche marketing, price risk management or price negotiation. Discuss and give examples of how that strategy can increase financial rewards on an independent farm.
(Total for both questions: 850 words minimum, 1,200 words maximum)

Dear Wisconsin guidance counselor:

The National Farmers Organization (NFO) is sponsoring their annual Steve Pavich and Frank Pries Memorial Scholarship and Farm Kids for College Scholarship for Wisconsin high school seniors interested in pursuing an education in agriculture. Applicants will automatically be eligible to win both scholarships by completing one application.

Agriculture majors could include:

Agronomy, ag business management, ag chemical engineering, ag education or extension, ag engineering, ag journalism, biochemistry, dairy sciences, entomology, food sciences, genetics, home economics, livestock or poultry sciences, natural resources or water resources management, nutrition, pre-veterinary medicine, rural planning and sociology, soil sciences, or a host of other disciplines that impact modern agriculture and rural life.

The scholarship application and essays are due to the Wisconsin NFO office by February 28, 2019. The scholarship committee will announce their winners by April 11, 2019. The mailing address is National Farmers, PO Box 460, Spring Green, WI 53588.

Enclosed please find a 2019 application for the Steve Pavich and Frank Pries Memorial Scholarship and Farm Kids for College Scholarship. Please make copies and distribute to any eligible students. Share this information with your school's Ag instructor, FFA advisor and science teachers.

You can learn more about National Farmers through our web site at www.nfo.org, and become a National Farmers fan on Facebook. If you or your students have any questions regarding either of the scholarships please contact me at (608) 643-3341 or jdilley@nfo.org.
